Flash Those Pearlies!

Our Deluxe Infant Oral Care Kit combines the best of so many oral care products, it has everything a teething baby needs. Enclosed in the reusable tin box are the Baby Banana Brush, Spry Training Tooth Gel, Chewable Jewels, Finger Cot, Drool Tool.

The Baby Banana Brush® is made of 100% flexible silicone making it safer than standard hard plastic toothbrushes.

Dr Bloom's Chewable Jewels are a unique line of safe teething jewelry that includes a bracelet and necklace. They were created by a dentist and three moms with teething babies. This dentist approved product gives moms everywhere a chance to feel fabulous while tiny tots chew their way to happiness.

The Finger Cot has tiny, soft bristles on it so that you can begin brushing your baby's teeth and massaging their gums using this little tool on your finger. Learn more.

Little Looster

This brilliant new product will be arriving in our store this week!

Comfort: Provides total comfort & leg support for years of use. No more painful pins-n-needles feeling when little legs are not supported.

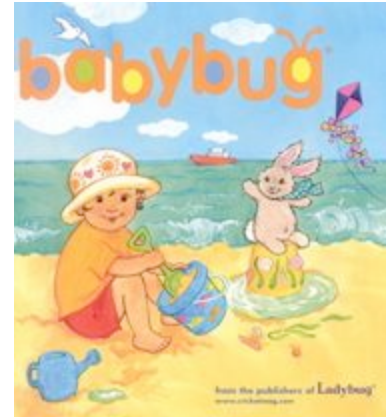

Confidence: Promotes complete certainty. No scary feeling of "falling in." Kids legs do all the work.

Cleanliness: Allows children to have their hands free at all times. No need to grip the back of the toilet seat or the inner, germ covered rim.

Baby Bug

They say you should read to your baby from the very beginning, and I agree! But sometimes I get bored reading the same books everyday to my daughter. Fortunately, we found a magazine created just for babies! For the past 4 years, we have looked forward every month to receiving the latest copy of Baby Bug magazine. They have delightful stories, poems, and even hand games to play with your baby. We couldn't wait to see what Kim and Carrots (pictured right) were up to in each new issue!

Some of my favorite aspects of the magazine are that there is no advertising and the illustrations feature a culturally diverse cast of characters. The small size and heavy weight paper makes it perfect for baby to grab onto. We still recite some of the poems and songs from a few years back to guide our daughter through some daily tasks like brushing her teeth or putting on her shoes.

Alas, time marches on and we recently graduated to Lady Bug magazine, but the wonderful stories and games have continued. At the risk of being pushy, I insist, you must check them out!

Day 1,495

A little over four years (1,495 days to be exact) from the day I ushered my newborn daughter into our home, I was dropping her off at school. A whole day away from her parents. She gave me a peck on the cheek and just breezed into the classroom on her own without looking back. No dragging of the feet, no wave goodbye. Not even a See ya! I tried to stop myself, but I couldn't, so I peeked around the corner into the classroom doorway just to make sure she was in the class and the teacher acknowledged that she was there. The look from the teacher that says Yes, your child is now under my supervision, you may leave. Please leave. There is play to be done. So I . . . \(click to read rest of article\)
