★★★★★ The best!! Lazar's has a fabulous selection of furniture. We had a great experience when picking out our son's bedroom set. We also bought his car seat and stroller there and all the sales people were very helpful. When we are ready for baby #2 we will definitely be using Lazar's again!

★★★★★ The furniture is beautiful & very unique, though definitely in a high price point. When I asked the salesman if he could show me cribs $1000 & under, he told me they don't carry "cheap" furniture & to go to Babies R Us instead. I felt so foolish, I walked right out & never went back.

★★★★★ Fantastic. We spent a lot of time and money there when our kids were babies. Great service. Not necessarily inexpensive but mostly because it sells upper-end items. Its prices on those items seemed competitive.

★★★★★ Great Service and Selection We had a great experience purchasing our nursery furniture at Lazar's- well actually 3 experiences. The first time we went into the store we just started our search and had no intention of buying anything yet and the staff was very helpful and answered all our questions without any sales pressure. The second time we went into the store, we still were not decided on what to buy and the owner, Mark, spent a long time with us showing us different options and answering all our questions. Again, no sales pressure. It was not until the third time in that we finally settled on the brand and furniture and again everyone was very helpful and not pushy. Each time as we narrowed our options I also checked prices online and found that the prices at Lazar's were very competitive and I did not find a cheaper price online for the furniture we wanted. I left the original review I wrote but feel I must update it based on my experience actually getting the furnitures. It has been over 12 weeks since ... Show full review

★★★★★ Great store, great service I've had 2 experiences with this store. The first was when we were looking for nursery furniture. Though we didn't intend to buy anything that day, the employees were extremely helpful and honest. The second time I worked with them was over the phone to get information on strollers. Again, the service was wonderful and I really appreciated their help.
