A Day Of Learning January 21, 2012

We are offering two informative workshops presented by experts in their fields to provide you with vital information to have a happy and healthy pregnancy and baby homecoming. Spend some time at Lazar's and learn a whole lot more than just how to select a crib or fold a stroller!

Look Great! Feel Great! 2:00 PM

Join Dr. Liz from Nexus Whole Health to learn 10 ways to look and feel great during and after pregnancy. This workshop isn't just for pregnant women! We're calling mommies of all ages to find out how they can get back to and maintain optimal health after pregnancy. This is a free event, but seating is limited so reserve your spot now! Click for more info & to register.

Breastfeeding 101 3:00 PM

If you're a first time mom, you probably have a few (or a lot!) of questions about breastfeeding. Be sure to attend our workshop on breastfeeding where you will be given an introductory course and have an opportunity to ask all your questions of our board certified lactation consultant, Patricia Drazin. This is a free event, but seating is limited so reserve your spot now! Click for more info & to register.

Hours

Monday - Saturday 10:00 am - 5:30 pm ::: Sunday 11:00 am - 5:00 pm

This week my 5-year-old daughter started ice skating classes! So excited for her to start a fun, healthy activity. There was a sign on the rink that said "Parents: We appreciate your enthusiasm, but your presence distracts the children. Please view the class from the lobby." So, I stepped out to the lobby and watched through the windows. A little harder to see, but it also meant my daughter couldn't see me, which was a good thing in this case. So imagine my surprise when another parent not only didn't come out to the lobby, but actually stepped onto the ice with her daughter and held her hand the whole time! What happened to trusting the teacher (two teachers, in fact, for four children) and letting the child have some structured freedom and some fun? Well, I guess I'm not alone because I found this article "Welcome to the Age of Overparenting" I thought all parents would find interesting. Click over to Boston Magazine for this great read!

See Dick throw the ball to Jane.
"Careful! Playing ball can be dangerous."
